Prayer of Commitment

“Christianity did not begin with a theological formulation, a set of laws, or even a prayer form, it certainly did not begin with a document. It began with a person. Christianity is all about commitment to a person. The person of Jesus Christ. Jesus says, Here I am, I stand at the door and knock if anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in.”

“The act of commitment is a prayer of self-offering which in simple terms expresses belief in Christ as Savior and Lord, acknowledges our sinfulness and need and clearly places our entire life in the hands of Jesus.” CRHP Manual

The CRHP manual goes on to say this “Being a follower of Jesus is not a matter of birth, but of decision. ...The tradition of infant baptism claims the faith of the community for the infant, but expects each individual to choose Jesus for himself when he is able to do so. “

“Dear Jesus, I believe you are the son of God and I believe you came to earth to die for me and to cleanse me of all my sins, guilt and shame and rose from the dead to bring me new life. You did this for me and you want me with you right now. Here I am Lord, I want to belong to you from now on. Forgive me and free me from all darkness and evil, heal me and transform me into your disciple.

Thank you for loving me just the way I am. Because of you I can now say with confidence “I am forgiven;
I am in Christ; and I am brand new.
Amen.”

Prayer of Surrender

Today I surrender to You, Lord Jesus. I surrender to You because I trust You. I surrender all to You, my health, my family, my finances, my work, my relationships, my successes, and failures. I release it all to You. I surrender to You, Lord, my fears, my insecurities, the past, the present, and the future. I belong to You.
